Last week: Murrel Bland showed a film about the Wyandotte Convention of 1959 that was adopted by the State of Kansas that led to our statehood on January 29th, 1861. The film was produced by the Wyandotte County Historical Society and the Kansas City Community College.

The Final Kansas Constitutional Convention was held in the largest building in Kansas in 1859 in Kansas City (then Wyandotte). The film has interviews with delegates who described what happened. Also featured was Clarina Nichols who was an abolitionist newspaper editor from Quindaro who championed women's rights. Kansas was the first state to grant property rights to women and also a vote in school elections.

Del announced that a check for $1,275 has been sent to the District for water filters in Panama. Thank you Bonner Rotarians for your generosity.

From the Rotators of February 1966: Programs included Dr. Frank Serra, a veterinarian who spoke on the "Sport of Falconry", Marvin Meyer who gave a review of recent articles in the Rotarian and John Lewis, Assistant Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts in honor of Boy Scout Week.

Daffynitions: Dust—mud with the juice squeezed out.

Beauty Parlor—a place where women curl up and dye.

Adult—a person who has stopped growing at both ends and is now growing in the middle.

Mosquito—an insect that makes you like flies better.

Secret—something you tell to one person at a time.

Valentine Thought of the Day: Marriage changes passion. Suddenly you're in bed with a relative.
